1862 Oct 10th State of Louisiana "Lazy 5" This issue has one of the best allegorical scenes on Civil War notes. Columbia (goddess of the USA) is down on the ground, with a broken sword, next to the bald eagle of the USA. The Confederacy, dressed in armour breastplate and helmet, has its foot on the eagle's neck, and is about to impale Columbia with its sword. To the left is the state bird of Louisiana, the pelican, with a nest of fledgelings. To the right is an ancient style river god with rudder, and jug pouring water, no doubt the personification of the Mississippi. Issued at Baton Rouge. Nice Unc $277. EF+ $97. F+ $47.
